EVANGELIST OSTROM

LAST NIGHT'S SERVICE.

Dr. Kincaid opened the welcoming service with a few words concerning the purpose of the campaign. In concluding he welcomed Dr. Ostrom in behalf of the churches. Clapping the evangelist's hand he introduced him to the people. Dr. Ostrom immediately came forward and called for the singing of the hymn "Far and Near the Fields are Teeming." Mr. Hillis led the chorus of forty voices and the congregation in the singing of the hymn. The singer's voice rang out with a note of triumph and the audience, catching the spirit of it, sang with enthusiasm. Mr. John G. Woolley led in prayer.

Dr. Ostrom then rose to speak of the world-wide revival. This he declared was not coming but already here. He cited the instance of the great English revival; of the tremendous meetings in Denver where eleven thousand people crowded the meetings and ten thousand stood in the streets outside; of the midnight parade and meeting in Los Angeles where hundreds of downcast and hungry souls were brought to Christ. When these great movements all over the world were trending to one great end there was something happening. The speaker felt that the field was ready for the harvest and was confident of victory in the coming campaign. In concluding his remarks he paid a glowing compliment to Mr. Woolley and then introduced the members of his party to the audience.

Mr. Butler next sang "The Voice of Consecration." He has a wonderful voice and his singing of the hymn thrilled the audience.

The Scripture lesson was from the prophecy of Isaiah beginning "The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness 'prepare ye a way for our Lord.'" Mr. Hillis then led the audience in a verse of the hymn "Nearer My God to Thee," all standing.

Dr. Ostrom then began his address, taking as his text the sixth verse of the 85th psalm, "Wilt Thou Not Revive Us Again; that Thy People May Rejoice in Thee."

DR OSTROM SPEAKS.

Dr. Ostrom said in substance: "Revolutions on the farm for seed time, revivals in the store for Christian trade, revivals in the home for house cleaning, revivals in political time, revivals in the schools for graduation exercises. Is it any wonder that we call the people of the churches to a revival of religion?"

"We want no mere excitement, no mere intoxication, no fuss, we want the tonic, the food, the power so that man shall have moral muscle and put it to use for the good of his neighbors. We want it to be easier for the grocer to collect his bills and harder to start a family quarrel at the breakfast table, we want the sense of God."

REVIVAL OF BIBLE STUDY.

"You will notice that this great revival interest now sweeping over Wales and England and America is a revival of Bible study. It must be so to be worth consideration. We have forgotten in these days the cost of this great book of God. We forget that but yesterday men died by fire to give it to us in our tongue. We have surrounded the book with an assumed mystery. It would help greatly to understand some of the commentators if we would just study the old book more. Let us begin this revival tonight by pledging right here that we will with tomorrow commence to memorize one text of scripture each day. Get to your Bible."

NEED OF PRAYER.

"We must have a great revival of prayer. People take to the little oyster supper and chicken pie social more readily than to a prayer meeting because they know more about oyster and chicken than about prayer. They have sampled them. The great need of the hour then is not to oppose the oyster supper but to get the prayer revival. When business men actually know how and alone and with their hot heads, heavy hearts, pray until they know they have the strength and counsel of God they will take to prayer more readily than to any kind of food. When the mother knows how to come forth from secret prayer with the tangle of the family affairs all straightened out by the hand of the Almighty father she will delight in prayer as a great luxury. When the student struggling with the last theory he read in some books comes forth from prayer knowing that he knows God then he will prefer prayer before his dinner."

ENTHUSIASM REQUIRED.

"We need enthusiasm. By enthusiasm I do not mean mere noise or bustle or gush. I mean that in the character which compares with that in a Corliss engine which makes it go. We are told that we are educated beyond enthusiasm today but that is proven a mistake by the conduct of university seniors and professors. The most enthusiastic revivals held have been in universities."

"We are told that business is so organized that enthusiasm is a thing of the past on that account. But certainly business men at election time on gala days and on the board of trade are still enthusiastic enough. No, if we lack enthusiasm it is because we need reviving, just that, and may God send that. Indeed the faith which has prompted the preparation for this great work in Honolulu suggests that it is all ready started here. And we ought to expect not a good meeting only but an extraordinary work of the spirit of God in this city of the islands. Thank God for the times of victory in which we are living."

"If the average man put as much dash and enthusiasm into his religious work as he does in gratifying his sinful appetites and baser passions these islands and cities would have such an awakening as they have never known before another sun goes down. Oh, Father, wilt thou not revive us again; revive us again!"

CLOSING WITH SONG.

After prayer Mr. Butler sang "Open My Eyes that I May See." In this song, if such a thing were possible, he was heard to better advantage than in his first solo and there were many who heard the gospel message conveyed through the beautiful words of the song. After the announcements had been made Mr. Hillis again thrilled the audience when he led the singing of the hymn, "Work for the Night is Coming." Dr. Scudder pronounced the benediction.

After the service Dr. Ostrom met the workers in the lecture room and plans were outlined. The workers will meet again Friday evening. Ushers have been selected and the church will be divided into sections and assigned to them.

THE EVANGELISTIC PARTY.

Dr. Henry Ostrom is a member of a family, seven of whom were public school teachers. He has been in the evangelistic work for twelve years, holding meetings in universities, mines, factories, railroad shops, etc. He held the New York City Temple meetings before Dr. Parks Cadman became pastor. He has been a great deal in Y. M. C. A. conventions and other young people's society conventions. He is the author of the hymn, "O Sabbath, 'Tis of Thee," adopted as the national hymn of the American Sabbath Union and several books, including, "Out of the Cain Life," "Greatness," "The Dearest Psalm," and "Replete Religion." He is accompanied by his wife, his son and two daughters. The son, Henry Ostrom, Jr., acts as his father's secretary.

Mr. John P. Hillis is a composer of some renown and a chorus leader of the greatest ability. He has been in the evangelistic work for many years and had been constantly with Mr. Ostrom for seven years. He has been a great favorite at Y. M. C. A. conventions.

Mr. Fred. Butler has been Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman's soloist for two seasons and is known throughout America. He was formerly a member of the Alice Nelson Opera Company and toured the world in leading roles. For years past, however, he has devoted himself to the evangelistic work. He is a favorite at the Winona Lake conferences. Mrs. Butler accompanies him.

AROUND THE CIRCLE.

The party comes direct from Seattle where the campaign closed early last week. They have been in the "Simultaneous Movement" since October, several companies of evangelists holding meetings at the same time in various cities of a given district. The number of workers in the movement has averaged twenty-four. Under them were volunteer workers numbering about 2675. The Ostrom party has travelled between 13,000 and 14,000 miles since the beginning of the present campaign. This does not include the trip to Honolulu. Among the cities visited were Birmingham, N. Y., Pueblo, Denver and Colorado Springs, Colo., Los Angeles, Alameda and Oakland, Calif., Portland, Ore., and Seattle, Wash.

JAPANESE DINNER TO VISITING SCRIBE

An elaborate dinner, a la Japanese, was tendered last evening at the Mochizuki Club, Waikiki, to Mr. Dent H. Robert, managing editor of the San Francisco Examiner, by the members of the Japanese press of Honolulu, comprising the editors of the Hawaii Shimpu Sha, Yamato Shimbun and the Japanese Chronicle. The dinner, which was attended by United States officials and members of the English press of Honolulu, was served in a large room with the table raised a few inches from the floor, the guests being seated on mats.

Preceding the dinner, the guests disrobed and donned Japanese kimonos and after a bath sat down to the feast, the toastmaster being Mr. C. Shiozawa, proprietor and editor of the Hawaii Shimpu. The guests, besides Mr. Robert, were United States District Attorney Breckons, United States Marshal Hendry, George Cullen of the U. S. Immigration Service, Senator Palmer Wood, Japanese Vice Consul Matsugawa, Mr. Kichi of the Yokohama Specie Bank, Dr. Katsunuma, George Henshall of the Associated Press, R. Beverley Kidd of the Star and Examiner, A. M. Burns of the Star, H. W. Kinney of the Bulletin and A. P. Taylor of the Advertiser. Toasts were drunk to the Emperor of Japan, President Roosevelt and King Edward VII, the Japanese and "haole" press organizations, and the heroes of Japan who fell during the present war.

Geisha girls enlivened the evening.

By special invitation John R. Mott goes to Oxford and Cambridge universities next February to hold conferences with the students on matters touching the personal Christian life. Mr. Mott's influence has been profoundly felt in American colleges, and it is not surprising that English universities should desire to feel the touch of his strong personality.

The Wool Test

IF YOU immerse a piece of fabric of PURE WOOL for twenty minutes in a pan of boiling water in which a stick of caustic potash has been dissolved, that fabric will melt away and be consumed—IF IT IS PURE WOOL. If it contains a particle of COTTON the COTTON will remain intact.

This is the Wool Test. It is infallible.

Much flimsy stuff is already masquerading on counters as wool—its purpose is for deception and profit. The trade name for such fabrics is "mercerized cotton." There will be more next winter. Worn for a week or two, they pucker and wilt and grow shapeless. No amount of pressing will restore their original appearance. Their imitation of true wool is so close in color and feel that even experts are deceived. But they cannot get past the Wool Test—the Wear Test.

For half a century the Stein-Bloch Co. has kept its clothes untainted from suspicion of deception. The Wool Test, applied to every fabric that comes into the Stein-Bloch shops, makes this absolutely sure.

Our new stock of Stein-Bloch Spring and Summer Clothes has just come to hand.

RAIL AND TIE.

A project is on foot to connect the railways of Greece with those of Turkey, so as to connect Athens with Europe by rail.

Official figures recently compiled show the main line mileage of rail roads in Missouri to be nearly 7,000. This total is likely to be considerably increased this year.

The Southern Railroad company of Italy is going to have built 18 locomotives, 121 passenger cars, 32 baggage cars, and 1,000 freight cars. Foreign concerns will be allowed to compete.

It is considered very doubtful if the Pennsylvania railroad will adopt nickel-steel rails for the points of severe service. At the famous Horseshoe curve the nickel steel rails have been replaced by those of the ordinary steel type, for it was found that the rails diminished the tractive power of the engines on account of their hardness.

A special car for invalids is being built for the Saxon state railroads for the transportation of those who can afford the expense of a whole car. It consists of three apartments, with a corridor on one side. One is for the sick person, and one of the others for the physicians, and the third for attendants. Cooking apparatus and refrigerators are provided. It may be hired for use on any railroad in Europe provided it is not needed at home.

A curious railway accident occurred in India lately. While a train was in Ruxaul station a terrific storm commenced, and although the brake was applied in the van and the engine, the force of the wind was such that the train was driven along the line. The engine dashed through the buffer stop at the end of the line, and traveled along about six lengths of rail laid end to end without flinching fastenings. After leaving these rails the engine plowed along the embankment, and then came fortunately to a standstill, no great damage having been done.

AUTOMOBILE NOTES.

The sultan of Turkey has taken to the automobile, and is so pleased with it that he has decorated the inventor of the make he uses.

The young duke of Manchester has distanced all the members of the English nobility who possess automobiles by appearing in a horseless carriage painted a vivid yellow color.

An automobile recently made a trip from Boston to Newport in 247 minutes. The return was made by another route in less than three hours. The distance was 75 miles.

A new first-of-the-century hot weather ailment has whirled into existence. It is electro-fanitis. Perhaps you have got it, as no class is immune. It is a sneezing, coughing cold in the head caused by the germ-laden breezes of the electric fan. It is almost epidemic.

It will be especially appreciated by that class of careful photographers who wish to use film on account of its convenience, yet who want to be able to perfect the composition of their picture by seeing it on the ground glass before exposure. This end is gained in the No. 4 Screen Focus, while at the same time all the old Kodak simplicity is conserved.

The optical equipment of this Kodak consists of a rapid Rectilinear lens of exceptional quality and the Kodak Automatic Shutter. This Kodak, notwithstanding its many desirable features in construction and equipment, is by no means a bulky, cumbersome camera. When closed it measures only 10x5x3 inches.
